Comments in Response to Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking
MB Docket No. 04-233

I submit the following comments in response to the Localism Notice of Proposed Rulemaking (the "NPRM"), released Jan. 24, 2008, in MB Docket No. 04-233.

Any new FCC rules, policies or procedures must not violate First Amendment rights. A number of proposals discussed in the NPRM, if enacted, would do so – and must not be adopted.

1. The FCC must not force revelation of specific editorial decision-making information. The choice of programming, especially religious programming, is not properly dictated by any government agency – and proposals to force reporting on such things as who produced what programs would intrude on constitutionally-protected editorial choices.
2. These changes will allow all anti-God organizations to use the U.S. legal system to development more costly and more dissention against Christian radio. As I stand and look back through the history books and at the themes that represent the fore fathers spirituality that initiated this great country called the United States of America, I often think about the statement "IN GOD WE TRUST". So if we trust in GOD why are we (Christians) who are placed in power in high places and can maintain the oracles of GOD within the borders of this great nation are allowing the false teachers and the Anti-God to establish a foot hole in Christian radio ministry to change or mandate the delivery of the Gospel to the world throughout the airwaves. If those in government would go back to the spiritual state of those men who agreed in their hearts and spoke with their voices "In God We Trust", then we would show our faith by steadfast in the Faith until the Lord returns.
